

Writing Process Reflection

Reflection offers writers the opportunity to learn from an assignment and apply this learning to future writing situations. Respond to the questions below with honesty and thoughtful consideration prior to submitting your assignment. Visit www.utrgv.edu/writingcenter for additional resources or to request feedback from a peer tutor.

1. How did you prepare to begin writing (this can include reading, research, outlining, etc.)? Describe any challenges you experienced and how you worked through them.
2. At what point did it feel like your draft was going in the right direction? Explain.
3. Did you request feedback on your writing? If so, what feedback did you receive and what changes did you make? If not, why not?
4. Are you satisfied with your final draft? Why or why not?
5. What specific writing-related strategies did this assignment teach you that might be employed in the future?
6. What did you learn about yourself as a writer throughout this process? How do you plan to approach your next writing assignment?
